

Teach Children About Jesus

'Hear My (God's) teaching My people. Turn your ears to the Words of My mouth. I (Jesus) will open My mouth in a parable. I will utter hidden sayings of old. Sayings we have heard and known and our fathers taught us. We will not hide them from the children, telling to the generations to come the praises of God, His strength and the wondrous works (creation, miracles) He has done. He established a testimony in Jacob (the children of Israel) and appointed a teaching in Israel which He commanded our fathers to make known to their children so the generations to come might know. Even the children who are yet to be born should arise and tell their children, so they might set their hope in God and not forget the works of God but keep all His commandments' (Psalm 78:1 to 7).

God said, "Abraham has become a great and mighty nation and all the nations on earth will be blessed in him, for I have known him and to the end he will diligently teach his children and his household after him, to keep the way of the Lord, to do righteousness and justice" (Genesis 18:18 & 19).

Children are easily led into the Kingdom of God. They are innocent and trusting. 'Little children were brought to Jesus so He could lay His hands on them and pray but the disciples rebuked them. Jesus said, "Allow the little children and do not forbid them to come to Me, for the Kingdom of Heaven belongs to children like these." He laid His hands on them and prayed' (Matthew 19:13 to 15). 'People brought little children to Jesus so He could touch them and bless them but the disciples rebuked those who were bringing the children. When Jesus saw it He was annoyed and said to them, "Allow the little children to come to Me! Do not forbid them for the Kingdom of God belongs to children like these. Most certainly I tell you, whoever will not receive the Kingdom of God (as innocently and trusting) like a little child will in no way enter into it." He held the children in His arms and blessed them, laying His hands on them' (Mark 10:13 to 16). 'People were bringing their babies to Jesus so He might touch them and pray but when the disciples saw it they rebuked them. Jesus summoned them saying, "Allow the little children to come to Me and do not hinder them for the Kingdom of God belongs to children like these. Most certainly I tell you, whoever does not receive the Kingdom of God just like a little child will in no way enter into it" (Luke 18:15 to 17).

Children are just as easily led into erroneous beliefs and sin because in their innocence, they will believe everything they are told and follow the examples set by their parents and other adults in their lives. Some parents are not diligently teaching their children to keep the way of the Lord, righteousness, God, the sacrifice of Jesus, the Kingdom of God, the Bible and other things that are true, but instead are teaching their children about things that are not true, like Santa Claus, the tooth fairy, the Easter Bunny and other lies. One day this author woke from sleep, amazed to find myself in the spirit world surrounded by seemingly 'sweet' but evil beings nobody else could see. I wondered what they were all about so I asked the Lord what I was seeing and what He was showing me. The Lord revealed to me, anything He did not create, that are embraced by children because of wrong teachings from misguided parents or other adults are utterly abhorrent to God. The Lord made it very clear to me, I am to write these warnings and publish the information on our website to inform all parents about the dangers of non-created, demonic beings, children are being taught to embrace and enjoy. After the Lord finished showing me what He wanted me to know regarding these evil things, and when He had revealed what He wanted me to write, they all instantly vanished. Evil spirits are all around us and they take many forms, but there seem to be some that are determined to destroy children and lead them away from God and ultimately, salvation, and the devil uses adults to achieve his goal.

The evil beings I saw were not ugly, frightening things that would scare children, but were quite sweet and appealing to children and many of them are brought 'to life' by modern computer animations. Things like dancing teddy bears, talking animals, huge non-threatening insects or 'talking' helicopters, clowns, ventriloquist puppets, blue smurfs, oompaloompas (from Charlie's evil fictional chocolate factory), wombles, tooth fairies, cute animated Easter bunnies, mogwais, gremlins, hobbits, Shrek and his other animated movie characters, the evil things in the Lord of the Rings movies, so-called 'super heroes' like Batman, Superman, Spiderman and others, Ninja Turtles, the Harry Potter series of books and movies, Wizard of Oz characters, the animated Simpson family, Santa Clause, magic 'arts' and strange non-created 'aliens' that appear in science fiction movies are not from God and are all evil. Almost all of these things perform witchcraft to accomplish their goals. Most of these 'beings' are seen on television or in movies, some are in books, some are featured in live shows and sometimes there are adults who dress up like these beings and act out the role. All of these things are from seducing evil spirits to lure children away from their salvation. These things are not harmless, but are sent from the devil to deceive and seduce children and their parents into accepting witchcraft as normal harmless fun and sadly, many Christian parents are being lured into this evil deception. Some Christian schools allow the Harry Potter series into their libraries, yet the books are full of evil and witchcraft. 'The Holy Spirit says expressly, in latter times (that is in our day) some will fall away from the faith, paying attention to seducing spirits and doctrines of demons, through the hypocrisy of people who speak lies, having their own conscience seared as with a hot iron ... If you instruct your brothers (and children) of these things, you will be a good servant of Jesus, nourished in the words of the faith and of the good doctrine you have followed. Refuse profane and old wives' fables. Exercise yourself toward Godliness' (1 Timothy 4:1 & 2, 6 & 7). Profane means non-religious, not sacred, irreverent, blasphemous, vulgar, coarse, shocking, lacking respect, vile or debased. To refuse and reject these things is to head toward Godliness.

Those non-created animals and creatures are leading children astray and away from the truth of the Gospel of salvation, when Jesus said very strongly, we are to lead children to Him. God expects all parents, especially Christian parents to be truthful with their children and not teach them falsehoods and fables, disguising the falsehoods as acceptable, cute and harmless. 'Put away falsehood, speak truth one with another (and with your children) for we are members of one another' (Ephesians 4:25). One reason the Lord considered Abraham to be righteous, was because God knew Abraham would diligently teach his children and his household about the ways of God right to the end of his life. All children are born innocent and trusting. Notice the way they are so honest and truthful they seem to completely lack tact. The Lord loves the way children speak out in innocence and truth. 'From the mouths of babes and infants you have established strength' (Psalm 8:2). 'The children were crying out in the temple and saying, "Hosanna to the son of David!" ... Jesus said, "Did you never read, 'Out of the mouth of babes (young children) and nursing babies you have perfected praise?'" (Matthew 21:15 & 16). Children of Christian parents are members of the Body of Jesus and little temples of the Holy Spirit just as adults are. To lead a righteous child astray and cause them to stumble in the faith is to incur the wrath of God. Woe to the adults who seduce children away from Jesus! 'Whoever causes the upright (righteous) to go astray in an evil way will fall into their own trap but the blameless will inherit good' (Proverbs 28:10). 'Jesus called a little child to Himself and set the young boy in the midst of the disciples and said, "Most certainly I tell you, unless you turn (away from sin) and become as (innocent, righteous) as little children, you will in no way enter into the Kingdom of Heaven. Whoever receives a little child in My name, receives Me. Whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in Me to stumble, it would be better for him if a huge millstone was hung around his neck and he was sunk in the depths of the sea. Woe to the world because of occasions of stumbling! It must be occasions will come but woe to the person through whom the occasion to stumble comes!" (Matthew 18:2 to 7).

Parents, those non-created things children are being subjected to, are not harmless. They are filling the minds of impressionable children with false beliefs that could lead them away from the Lord. We are not talking about soft cuddly toys that could be comforting to a young child so please do not mis-understand. Children need toys to cuddle and play with. We are talking about non-created fictional animals and 'alien' non-existent animated beings that supposedly have adult intelligence and speak like humans. The Lord did not create talking teddy bears, smurfs, wombles, oompaloompas, hobbits or friendly aliens. They may seem sweet but they do not exist and are evil. They were created in the minds of evil people. Their whole purpose is to glorify witchcraft and evil beings. When people claim to see cute little fairies in their garden, they are actually seeing manifestations of evil spirits. Talking lions with human intelligence such as in the Lion King or in the books of Narnia are utterly abhorrent to God. He did not create lions or any other animal to have human intelligence nor to speak. They are animals that are very good at behaving as God intended – as lions or other animals.

Santa Claus may seem to be fun but is a lie and those kinds of lies could lead a child to spiritual death. 'There is a way that seems right to mankind but in the end it leads to (spiritual) death' (Proverbs 14:12; 16:25). Santa Claus, the tooth fairy (giving coins for lost teeth), the Easter bunny (giving Easter gifts), ventriloquists (with 'talking' puppets), magicians demonic illusory 'magic' and other 'acceptable' things like that are not real, and to teach children they are real is teaching and enforcing lies. Parents need to teach the truth. Magicians do their magic by either deceptive illusions or by the evil powers of darkness. As for Santa Claus, the truth is, family or friends are the ones who give Christmas gifts. Telling children the truth does not diminish in any way the joy and excitement of receiving gifts. It will explain to poorer families why 'Santa' gives good, expensive gifts to some children and seems to forget poorer children. It is cruel to expect children to try to understand why 'Santa' is good to wealthy children and not so kind to those who have less money. It is after all, the Lord Who provides and children need to know where their gifts come from.

Books or animated children's movies with talking animals, unknown creatures or actors dressed up like 'super heroes' are all evil and Christians need to explain to children why they should never read those books or watch movies like those. The Bible tells us not to take part in any form of witchcraft (Leviticus 19:26) and we must burn all books of magic arts and wizardry. 'Many of those who practiced magical arts brought their books together and burned them in the sight of all. They counted the price of them and found it to be fifty thousand pieces of silver' (Acts 19:19). That would have been about $1,000,000 in modern currency.

Christians need to smarten up and remember, we need to live every day as though the Lord is going to return any moment and not waste time on teaching children fiction but focus on the scriptures. As explained above, there are serious eternal consequences for adults who teach lies, falsehoods, fables and myths to children with the intent of having their young minds accept those lies as truth or 'fun', which is actually sin. Parents need to fill children's minds with the truth of the Bible, on our coming King Jesus, on the Kingdom of God and on good behaviour that gives glory to God. Time is short. Our King is coming soon. We do not have time to deceive children. They need to know the truth so they can also be ready for the Lord's return.

'You will teach My Words (the Bible) to your children, talking of the scriptures when you sit in your house (at home), when you walk by the way (when out of the house), when you lie down (evening) and when you rise up (morning)' (Deuteronomy 11:19). 'Come you children, listen to Me. I will teach you the fear of the Lord' (Psalm 34:11).

Amen and God bless you.
